A gang of river thieves made two attempts, at an early hour Saturday morning, to enter the saloon of Mr. Taylor, at the Erie depot. They first tried to bore through the floor, from their boat, the building being erected over the water on piles, but they were discovered by the watchman and made their escape. Shortly after they returned and attempted to break open a door, when they were fired upon, but succeeded in getting off.

On Saturday morning, about 3 o'clock, a fire brake out in the cotton-seed oil factory of Bachman & Co., corner of Pavonia avenue and Provost street. Owing to the inflammable nature of the material the firemen were unable to extinguish the flames, and the building, stock and machinery were totally destroyed. The fire was undoubtedly the work of the river thieves. The losses are as follows: On stock, $30,000; machinery, $10,000; boiler and encine, $8,000; buildings, $20,000; total, $68,000. Partially insured in New York and eastern companies.

An old mansion in the First Ward has acquired the reputation of being "haunted." It was formerly occupied by an ex-Commodere of the navy, and superstitious people aver that the old gentleman pays periodical visits to the house, sometimes inside, and at others to the verandah, up and down which he walks as was his habit in life. Two policemen state that while sitting in the verandah one night, about three weeks since, one had his car slapped, and the other was suddenly seized and dragged to the opposite side. A reporter of one of the local papers, who boards in the house but dishelleves the tales of its being haunted, positively asserts that after retiring on Saturday night his pillow was suddenly raised about six inches, and then as suddenly let drop again. The parties who make these statements evidently perifeve them, though they are doubtless victims of some hoax.

THE POLICE COMMISSIONERS-REORGANIZATION OF THE BOARD.

Although there has been considerable caucusing among the Police Commissioners and others with reference to the re-organization of the Police Board, no actual meeting, having for its object, the election of offiactual meeting, having for its object, the election of officers of the new Board was held until Saturday. The meeting was a private one, and the Commissioners are very reticent with reference to much that is believed to have been done. It is ascertained however that on the firsthallot the vote stood two for Manierre and two for Boaworth. Several other ballots were taken, all the Commissioners being voted for in tun, no one however receiving more than two votes. During the session Commissioner Brennan declared that he would not serve another year as Treasurer; the position was too irksome a one for the additional $500, and, beside, he thought he could tender his resignation with a better grace as his exhibit was a good one during the year he had occupied the position of Treasurer, and then submitted the following brief statement:

ACCOUNT OF CLEANING, FURNISHING, AND SUPPLYING STATION HOUSE March 1, 1867, to March 1, 1861. $25,202. March 1, 1868, to March 1, 1868. $12,478 concluded to adjourn until Monday. There is apparently no chance, for a time at least, of the Board being organized. One, at least, of the Republican members is said to desire the Presidency, and it is no secret that Mr. Bronnan is pushed for the position by the Democratic leaders in this city. It looks very much as though a long fight has been inaugurated, somewhat similar to the hierostande one when Mayor Wood was one of the Police Commestoners and a power in the Democratic party in this city.

THE VELOCIPEDE.

A grand national velocipede exhibition is to ommence to day at the Jersey City Velocipedrome, and continue all the week. The Empire City Rink is to be transformed into a "Grand Musical Palace," with nightly concerts. A large arena will be reserved for velocipede riding.

NEW HOME FOR WOMEN.

The Home for the protection and rescue of young women and girls who are tempted from the paths of virtue, having been removed from No. 22 West Hous ton-st. to more commodious quarters on Washington-square, south side (two doors east of Thompson-st.), the reopening exercises will be hold at the new Home to morrow evening, at 74 o'clock. Addresses are expected from the Rev. Drs. Mullenberg, Adams, Murray, Booth, Foss, and others. A brief circular issued from the Home, says: "This Home, through the blessing of God, has been greatly useful. Doring the little more than three years since it was established 276 young women have been received under its care. Of these 66 have been restored to their friends; 119 have been provided with situations, several have been married to their former companions, a number have gone to other institutions, and many have given evidence of true repentance and conversion to Christ. The fearful prevalence and increase of what is known as the 'Social Evil;' its corrupting influence upon our young men who are tempted on every street and avenue; the great numbers of young women, and even young girls, who, on coming to the city for employment, are drawn into the vortex by the allurements of dress and pleasure, and by the acts of wickod men and women; all call for increased efforts to promote the salvation of the unfortunate though erring class. It is a department of Christian benevolence which has been too long neglected, and the sympathy, and prayers, and penniary aid of these who love to do good, are carnestly solicited in behalf of this institution." ton-st, to more commodious quarters on Washington-

STRANGE CONDUCT OF A POLICE SURGEON. Late on Saturday night James Devinney and David Conklin engaged in a fight, and Devinuey was very badly beaten about the head and face. Both men were arrested and taken to the West Twentieth-st. Police Station. As Devinney seemed to be very seriously injured, a messenger was dispatched for Police Surgeon Van Buren. He was found at his residence, no. 214 West Twenty-second-st., but, according to the takements of the police, refused to attend the counded man. Another surgeon was procured after a long search, and the wounds of Devinney were dressed, and he was then removed to Bellevue Hospital. There have been numerous complaints of late with reference to the conduct of some of the police surgeons, who seem to think it no part of their business to answer calls for their professional services after they have retired for the night. Yesterday Devinney was too unwell to appear at the Jefferson Market Police Court and make complaint, and on the representation of Officer Hill of the Sixteenth Precinct, Justice Dodge committed Conklin, the other party to the fight. badly beaten about the head and face. ACCIDENT ON THE CONEY ISLAND RAILROAD-EX-PLOSION OF A BOILER. The Coney Island Railroad was the scene of a easualty yesterday afternoon, which may result in the casualty yesterday afternoon, which may result in the less of one or more lives. At about 2½ o'clock one of the dummy engines on the road, with a passenger car attached, reached what is known as the turnout track, and was lying there waiting for the down car. It had been there but a short time when the boiler exploded, scattering portions of the engine in different directions, sealding Daniel Quinn, the engineer, and two firemen, John Tilton and R. A. Nopes. The report of the explosion was heard a considerable distance, and crowds of people soon gathered about the scene of the catastrophe, and rendered all the assistance possible to the injured men. The police of the 48th precinct were soon on the ground and conveyed Quinn and Nopes to their houses in Guntherville. Tilton was taken to the hospital.

ANOTHER UNFORTUNATE.

A very pretty and interesting young girl, giving her name as Tybilla Arnett, was taken before Justice Dodge yesterday, at the Jefferson Market Police Court, on a charge of having attempted suicide by drowning, on Saturday might, at the foot of Twenty-ninth-st. North River. It appears that she was about jumping into the river when she was seen by Officer Sillick, who immediately arrested her. The girl admitted her intention to destroy herself, alleging as the cause that her laudiady had cast her off, and that she had received bad news from home. She is rather refined in her manners and intelligent in her discourse, and is manifestly laboring under the weight of some great trouble. She has no friends, she asserts, in this city, and refuses to tell where she came from, or in what way she was brought to the metropoles. Justice Dodge committed the girl to the care of the Commissioners of Public Charities.

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS. The following is a copy of a circular now being circulated in the Public Schools of this city:

ing circulated in the Public Schools of this city;

"We, the undersigned, Principals and Assistants in Male Departments, are of the decided opinion, after full discussion and consciention cichieration, and as the results also of long experience in the practice are of cincation, that the abolition of corporal punishment in and department would be bigurious to the discipline thereof, and serious betramental to the welfare of the pupils."
